

VOICE
THEATRE LAB
CONFERENCE 2010
PHYSIO-VOCAL PRAXIS

Academy of the Arts, University of Tasmania
Launceston, Tasmania 11-13 November, 2010

Voice Theatre Lab at the Academy of the Arts, University of Tasmania, Launceston, are holding the first Physio-Vocal Praxis Conference. It is a conference, training and performance event that examines the synergy of voice and body in contemporary performance contexts. Theatre practitioners, directors, voice and movement teachers, academics, postgraduate students and performers are invited to attend to propose futures for the consolidation of voice and movement practice. This event gives these people the opportunity to further investigate the body/voice relationship.

Keynote speakers will include:

Michael Luger, Master teacher of voice, movement and acting, author 'The Expressive Actor'; Jacqui Carroll and John Nobbs, Artistic Directors, OzFrank Theatre Matrix; Experience Bryon, Artistic Director/Choreographer of Experience Vocal Dance Company. Master teacher of voice, movement and acting and pioneer of the Integrative Performance Practice.
